

Shing (Tom) Law Bio 2020

I studied medicine at Jesus College, University of Oxford. Subsequently, I completed Internal Medicine residency at Steward Carney Hospital and Rheumatology fellowship at Boston Medical Centre in Massachusetts, USA. I am Board Certified in Internal Medicine and Rheumatology by the American Board of Internal Medicine.

As Clinical Research Fellow in Rheumatology at University of Oxford, my research interests include translational research including use of musculoskeletal ultrasound and ultrasound guided synovial biopsy to advance new therapies for patients with rheumatoid and psoriatic arthritis. I am Governor of Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust where I represent the public and staff within the Trust. Collectively as the Council of Governors, we hold the non-executive directors to account for the performance of the board of directors.

My role as a member of the Oxford Medical Alumni Advisory Board is to provide support and guidance on the alumni strategy with a goal of increasing and enhancing engagement amongst its global community.

My extracurricular interests include representing Oxford University Polo Club and Oxford University Fencing Club in national competitions, as well as recreational membership of Oxford University Lawn Tennis Club and Oxford University Table Tennis Club.
