

DO YOU HAVE EXPERIENCE OF ILL HEALTH?

COULD YOU SHARE THIS TO HELP EDUCATE FUTURE DOCTORS?

SHARE YOUR STORY IN CONFIDENCE

Help students learn about your health issues

Sharing your story will help medical students understand:

- the reality of living with particular health conditions
- the barriers patients may face seeking care
- how patients would like doctors to engage with them.

Stories are shared with students as written or video case-studies and are anonymised.
